SCHORR STABLE ON MARKET

LEADING AMERICAN OWNER OF LAST YEAR WOULD LIKE TO RETIRE FROM TURF.

Stable Will Be Divided Between This Country and Canada and Continue to Race if Owner Is Unable to Obtain Fair Prices for the Horses.

The report has been in circulation that John W. Schorr, of Memphis, Tenn., who headed the list of the money-winning owners of the racing thoroughbred in America last year with stable earnings of $85,326, is contemplating retirement from the turf as an owner. One report that came from New York had it that Alexander Smith Cochran, a wealthy eastern patron of racing, has been negotiating for the Schorr horses and might buy them. It was represented that Mr. Schorr's object in retiring would be that he might devote his time and money to combating the "dry" movement in southern states, which vitally concerns him because a large part of his big fortune is invested in the brewing industry.

In reply to a query as to the truth of these reports, Mr. Schorr telegraphed Daily Racing Form from Memphis yesterday as follows:

"I will sell all my horses if I can get fair prices and retire. Up to now I have had no offers of any kind. If I can't sell them, I shall race half of my horses in Kentucky and the east and the other half in Canada. I have thirty horses in training, including ten two-year-olds, eleven three-year-olds and others older. I have this year by far the best stable I ever had."

The horses whose winnings put Mr. Schorr at the head of the winning owners list last season include Luke McLuke, David Craig, Ed Crump, Lechares, Aunt Josie, Mars Cassidy, Goldcrest Girl, Geo. Roesech, Vandergrift, Star Shooter, Goldcrest Boy, Edda, Lindenthal, Chubs, Rathna, Eddie Dellinger, Dengro and Birdie Williams. Mr. Schorr also owns some promising two-year-olds carefully selected in Kentucky last season as yearlings.

JUAREZ HAS A DISQUALIFICATION.

California Jack Is Placed Last After Finishing First in Race and Marie Coghill Benefits.

El Paso, Tex., March 12.—The track at Juarez was in worse condition today than during the preceding days, being sticky and holding. The card carried no special feature.

The chief incident of the day's racing was the disqualification of California Jack after that colt from J. E. Dwyer's stable had finished first in the third race. Jockey Gross had the mount on California Jack and steered his mount from the course as he was following well out in the track to the inside when it became apparent that Marie Coghill was about to wrest the lead from him. Jockey Stirling was forced to pull Marie Coghill up sharply. The stewards lost no time in placing California Jack last after a claim of foul had been entered. Rooster was the favorite for this race and the change in the placing gave him third money. He was eliminated as a serious contender for the purse by an unlucky break at the start, getting away a poor last.

Orimer Lad was the first favorite to score during the afternoon. He won the fourth in a drive with Saffroner. The following race brought victory for another first choice when Bernadine beat Durin a head, reversing the outcome of their meeting a day or two ago. Three of the remaining purses went to horses at remunerative odds.

The stewards dealt summarily with jockey Gross for his rough riding tactics on California Jack and suspended him for the remainder of the meeting.

Manager M. J. Winn will leave Monday for his home in Louisville to make preparations for the Kentucky Derby and to see that all the improvements at Churchill Downs will be completed by Derby day.

SOME TIMELY ITEMS FROM CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., March 12.—"Patsy" Gallagher, one of the best known of Canadian steeplechase riders up to a few years ago, died at his home here yesterday, aged thirty-nine years. He had ridden for practically every owner of jumpers in this part of the country.

The Windsor race course is just now occupied as a remount center for horses for British army purposes which have been purchased in the United States and brought into Canada from the west. The British war office purchasers are leaving an enormous amount of money with United States breeders, their buying amounting to some $6,000 horses and 25,000 mules. Canadian breeders are getting none of this money, as the field in Canada is kept for the purchases for the Canadian contingent that is sent across the sea.

The King's Plate favorite, the Brookdale Stable's Lady Curzon, has wintered well in trainer George S. Walker's care at Barrie. The Dynamite string this season will number about a dozen, headed by the Goldfinch horse, Tippecanoe, that was one of the sensations of last season, and has grown into one of the grandest individuals ever seen here. Tippecanoe will be used in the stud at Brookdale on his retirement from racing. The Barrie horses have a mile track available on the home farm and will not come to Woodbine for another month.

G. A. COCHRAN'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

New York, March 12.—The Gifford A. Cochran horses are being wintered at Aiken, S. C., and are under the care of William Midgeley, who has trained them successfully for two seasons. For the coming year first call has been obtained on jockey Lilley, one of the best lightweights that rode at New Orleans. Several purchases have been made in the two-year-olds are being fitted for the coming season. The youngsters are all credited with first-class trials. They are:

PERFORMANCES IN LAST YEAR'S RACING OF THE WINNER OF THE SPINAWAY STAKES

Among the fleet two-year-old fillies of last year Lady Barbary earned a place in the front division and in winning the Canarsie Stakes at Aqueduct, Great American Stakes at the same place, Spinaway Stakes and Adirondack Handicap at Saratoga displayed speed, stamina and courage of high order. She trained off and did not show to advantage in the autumn racing, but in the spring and up to the close of the Saratoga meeting was in all respects a capital racer. Some horses are characteristically at their best in the spring and summer racing, while others do not run in their best form until the late summer and autumn racing comes on. It may be that Lady Barbary belongs to the first classification. At any rate it appeared so last year.

Lady Barbary's introduction to racing took place at Churchill Downs, May 21, in a purse race at five-eighths of a mile, in which she did not prove successful, but was only beaten a neck in 1:00 by Filigree, with Margaret D. third and five more unplaced. This was a promising beginning and she did better in her next essay, which was at Douglas Park, May 27, in which she ran the same distance in 59½ and won by a neck from Margaret D., with Filigree third another neck away. In her first race she had started at 23 to 1 in the mutuels, but on this occasion she went to the post favorite at 19 to 10. At the same track, June 2, E. R. Bradley's excellent filly, Brig's Sister, defeated her at the same distance by a length in 59½, with Margaret D. third and seven others unplaced. At Latonia, June 10, she won a purse at five-eighths in 1:00 and in doing so defeated Superhuman, Lady Jane Grey, Shoddy, Menlo Park and Electrician. Then she was taken east for a campaign over the New York tracks. Her first start in her new field of operations was in a purse race at Aqueduct, June 24, distance four and a half furlongs. In this she met good opposition and in a fast run race, finished second to the good Celt filly, Coquette, in the new track record time of 54½. Dismiss was third and Forecast and Change ran unplaced.

In her next race she was unplaced herself. This was on June 29, in the Clover Stakes, for fillies at five-eighths of a mile, which Coquette won in 1:00½, with Play second and Catalina third. Besides Lady Barbary, the unplaced ones were Capra, Sea Shell and Dismiss, so she had good company in misfortune. July 2 she won the Canarsie Stakes, at five-eighths over a slow track in 1:02 and defeated Tinkle Bell, Salsenet, Geo. Roesech and Al Reeves without being extended. This satisfactory proceeding she improved upon two days later when she won the more valuable Great American Stakes, at the same distance over a fast track. The starters, weights and order of the finish were Lady Barbary, 109 pounds; Lampon, Trial by Jury, Kilkenny Boy and Scornil, 106 pounds each; The Masquerader and Catalina, 115 each. Butler's pair, Kilkenny Boy and Catalina, coupled, were at 9 to 5 in the betting, with The Masquerader second choice at 2½ to 1, while it was 7 to 1 against Lady Barbary. In the running she was reserved close up behind the leaders to midway of the homestretch, then moved into the lead with a rush and won by two lengths, while Lampon managed to defeat Trial by Jury by a head for second money. The race was run in 1:01½ and her form was excellent, as the subsequent racing of Trial by Jury and Kilkenny Boy demonstrated. In the Tremont Stakes, at three-quarters of a mile, run July 8, she was not so fortunate, but ran a good race when, with 115 pounds on each, Ed Crump beat her by a half length on a slow track in 1:15½. Trial by Jury, 106 pounds, was third, and Double Eagle, 103, ran unplaced. July 30 she finished fourth to Kaskaskia, Comely and Ed Crump in the rich Wakefield Handicap at Empire City and was then taken to Saratoga, where she raced with great credit.

Her debut there was on the first day of the meeting, August 1, in the long-established Flash Stakes. The distance was five and a half furlongs, track fast, and she carried 119 pounds. Her opponents were: Trial by Jury, 110 pounds; Solly, 113; Catalina, 119; Nooruddin, 107; Chesterion, 113, and Silece and Pan Maid, 104 each. The race was run in 1:07 and at the finish Trial by Jury was first by a length and a half, with Lady Barbary second a half length in advance of Solly. At the weights this was a fine race for her, but its lesson was disregarded when, on August 4, nine fast fillies lined up at the barrier to contend in the twenty-third running of the Spinaway Stakes for two-year-old fillies, at the same distance. The starters and weights were: Lady Barbary, 122 pounds; Kaskaskia, 127; Montrose, 104; Broomleaf, 105; Royal Martyr, Busy Edith and Turn Turtle, 104 each; Catalina and Menlo Park, 124 each. With J. Butwell up, Kaskaskia was a 6 to 5 favorite, with Montrose second choice at 13 to 5 and it was 7 to 1 against Lady Barbary. While Montrose was out in front, running the first half in 46½, Lady Barbary was saved under restraint in fourth place until well straightened away in the homestretch, then came on with an irresistible burst of speed and, passing the leaders in a twinkling, won by three lengths, with Kaskaskia second and Montrose third. Time 1:06 and a grand race in all respects. In her next two races she was beaten and unplaced in both instances to the great filly, Regret. The first of these was the Saratoga Special, August 8, in which Regret made her first start and, running its three-quarters in 1:11½, won by a length from Pebbles, with Paris (now in England) third. The unplaced ones were Lady Barbary, Prince Henry, Trial by Jury and Charter Maid. Lady Barbary ran a good race and was fifth, Luke finishing fourth. The second race in which she was one of Regret's victims was the Sanford Memorial Stakes, run August 15, over a slow track at three-quarters of a mile. Carrying 127 pounds, Regret won this easily in 1:13½, with Solly, 115 pounds, second, and Dinah Do, 107, third. Lady Barbary carried 122 pounds and was fourth, Garbage, Pan Maid, Capra and My King being the other unplaced ones. Then she took a turn at winning herself. The occasion was when, on August 19, the Adirondack Handicap, for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, came up for decision over a fast, but not fast, track. The starters were Lady Barbary, 114 pounds; Trial by Jury, 117; Luke, 119; High Noon, 120; Distant Shore, 110, and Razzano, 106. High Noon and Luke were supposed to hold the others safe, so High Noon went to the post at 6 to 5 and Luke at 7 to 5, while it was 10 to 1 against Lady Barbary and 12 to 1 against Trial by Jury. Between this unconsidered pair it was a close thing at the finish, but Lady Barbary won by a nose in 1:14½, with Trial by Jury second a length and a half in front of Luke. High Noon came up to be up in the air on his hind legs when the barrier was released, else the race might have had a different termination.

That was Lady Barbary's last winning race of the year. On August 26 she ran third to Trial by Jury and Top o' th' Morning in the Grab Bag Handicap and after that was unplaced in all of the six races in which she was sent to the post. Her record and her pedigree are:

of the bill is that Governor Hays' approval of the bill could not be recalled by the governor after he had signed it.

Governor Hays denied that he signed it, but his signature appears upon the bill, which has been filed with the secretary of state. Secretary Hodges at first refused to accept it, but on the advice of Attorney General Moore, he finally did so. Affidavits have been secured from six prominent Arkansians who were with the governor when he signed the bill, who testify that Governor Hays did sign the measure, and photographs of the bill showing the signature with the syllable "dis," in black ink in front of the "approved" in red ink and the "dis," crossed out and then written in again above with "and vetoed at 4 o'clock, March 8," added in black ink. This last was not written on the bill when Governor Hays left his office with it Monday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock, it is claimed.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., March 12.—Frank M. Taylor arrived here this morning from New York on another horse scouting expedition. He and Charles Hill will go to Louisville tomorrow morning to look at horses at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park.

Emil Herz was here from Louisville today and said that he is pointing Short Grass for the Camden Handicap.

Jockey Frank Murphy, under contract to Tom Brown reported today to W. J. Young, for whom he will exercise horses for a month.

Jockey C. Van Dusen arrived from New Orleans today with E. J. Scott, who has Brounsedge.

John McLernand is here with Joe D. and Fatima.

Senator J. N. Camden's Oaks candidate, One Step, worked today. Emerson Cochran and Pif Jr., from the stable of Jack Baker, went a head in 55, and Booker Bill did three-quarters in 1:21.

John B. McLaughlin, one of the owners of John Gund, Constant and Pif Jr., accompanied by John S. Ray and Frank Bissicks, left this evening for French Lick Springs.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Reports from Havana are to the effect that the bookmakers who have been laying odds at Oriental Park this winter have operated at an aggregate loss of $50,000.

Gwyn Tompkins, whose stable wintered at Warrenton, Va., has acquired a new jumper in Sheila, a four-year-old by Ormondale—Nancy D. John Clark, formerly jockey for "Miss Chamblert," will do the riding for the Tompkins stable this year. This does not mean, however, that Kernath has retired from the saddle permanently. Reports of that veteran jockey's condition are highly encouraging and indicate he may resume his place under the Tompkins colors before the season is over.

W. H. Snyder, who spent the winter in America, has arrived in France, where he has charge of the F. R. Hitchcock stable. While on this side trainer Snyder was hopeful of getting his charges safely out of France, but his plans miscarried and at the last moment the French government refused the necessary permission. Both the owner and trainer, however, are sanguine of getting the string back to America before the approaching racing season in the east is over.

HAVANA STEWARDS ACTIVE

J. KNIGHT IS RULED OFF AND JOCKEY WOLFE LOSES PRIVILEGES OF COURSE.

Former Is Charged with Violation of Rule in Offering to Make a Wager for Jockey Ural on Horse with Which Latter Won.

Havana, Cuba, March 12.—The racing at Oriental Park this afternoon was overshadowed by the announcement of several rulings by the stewards in the interest of clean sport.

It was announced that for violation of rule 180 in offering to place a wager for jockey W. Ural when he rode Yellow Eyes to victory in the first race on March 4, J. Knight had been ruled off the turf. Jockey H. Wolfe, who rode Gold Cap in the same race, was ordered to be barred from all privileges of the Cuba-American Jockey Club.

Another ruling issued by the stewards suspended jockey C. Jones for the remainder of the meeting for unsatisfactory riding.

Jockeys C. Miller and F. Robinson each scored a double during the afternoon. The former won the opening race with the well-backed favorite, Skarlet Oaks, and scored a nose victory on Wanda Pitzer over Briar Path in the five and a half furlong handicap that had the place of honor on the program. Incidentally, Wanda Pitzer reduced the track record for the distance to 1:36½. In the preceding race Envy had made a new track record of 1:01½ for five furlongs. The track is steadily becoming better and seems destined to take rank with the fast courses of America.

First choices accounted for half the card and, as all three were well backed, the layers had an unprofitable day.

Three horses fell during the running of the fifth race, but the jockeys involved escaped serious injury.

The day's proceedings were enlivened by two run-ups in selling races. Wanda Pitzer was bid up from $200 to $400 and became the property of J. W. Hedrick. Uncle Mun was bid up from $300 to $705 and was bought in for J. H. Loucheim by trainer John Powers.

EASTERN STABLES TO RACE AT BOWIE.

New York, March 12.—Practically every representative eastern horseman will participate in the coming meeting of the Southern Maryland Fair Association at Bowie, which will inaugurate the season of 1915, in so far as the eastern circuit is concerned. Having been assigned the place on the eastern schedule held until last spring by Norfolk, this spring's meeting at Bowie, from April 1 to 14, inclusive, will be conducted under the auspices of the Jockey Club. E. C. Smith will represent the controlling racing body in the east in the grandstand, Joseph A. Murphy will preside at the finish and A. B. Dade will do the starting.

Prominent eastern horsemen who have made bids for stalls include August Belmont, Richard T. Wilton, K. G. Billings, Frederick Johnson, Clarence H. Robbins, W. R. Coe, Harry James Whitney, Capt. E. B. Cassatt, Archibald Barklie, Henry J. Morris, James Fitzsimmons, Herbert L. Pratt, David J. Leary, W. T. Anderson A. L. Aste, John Whalen, Edward Phelan, M. Daly, Michael J. Leonard, G. W. Langdon, G. M. Odom, Richard F. Carman, Dr. J. S. Tyree, Hal Parr, Samuel Ross, Capt. P. M. Walker, William Garth, A. D. Parr, W. T. Ryan, Frank Frisbie, L. R. Doctor, F. M. Bray, Gifford A. Cochran and David Gideon.

James Fitzsimmons, Edward Phelan and Michael Daly will ship to Bowie contingents of the strong Quincey Stable, which will send Troph, winner of last season's Futurity, to Kentucky to try for the Derbys at Latonia and Louisville. And in addition to a contingent of the Quincey Stable, trainer Fitzsimmons will have the stables of Mr. Pratt and Mr. Morris.

The division of the Whitney string that will race at Bowie wintered at Norfolk under the eye of Albert Simons. It is made up mainly of two-year-olds. The Carman, Garth, Ross, Tyree, Walker, Ryan and Frisbie strings wintered either at Benning or close by in Virginia and Maryland and are well advanced. Gifford Cochran's establishment has been at Aiken, S. C., since the first of the year and will come north under the management of W. R. Midgeley. In addition to Fitzguy and Royal Martyr, Mr. Cochran will show a band of superbly bred two-year-olds at the new track.

The other stables wintered about New York and they are probably as far advanced as those that spent the cold months farther south. The weather at Gravesend, Sheepshead Bay and Belmont Park has been favorable for training since the early part of February, and the New York trainers have taken full advantage of it. James Fitzsimmons said yesterday at Gravesend that his horses were in better condition for racing than they were in the last fortnight of March, 1914. Samuel C. Hildreth, who is handling the Belmont string, has been hard at work since the middle of February and such of the horses of the chairman of the Jockey Club as he will send to Bowie will race under the management of David Leary, the owner of Thornhill and Hurakan. W. F. Anderson will take the Aste horses down from New York along with his own, and Richard Miller will have charge of the stable of L. R. Doctor.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

C. D. M., Oakland, Cal. The first racing at Washington Park took place in 1884.

J. C. L., Provo, Utah. Hoenir having gone to the post, all wagers on him stood just as if he had ran.

R. M., St. Louis, Mo. The mistake is your own. J. Nolan's index reference in race 19578 is to race 19557, which he won.

R. H. B., New Albany, Ind. For some time past Riggs has been barred from advertising in this newspaper and therefore does not file his selections here.

E. L. S., Louisville, Ky. Fruitjar, bay filly, now a three-year-old, started in three races last year as the property of W. P. Beardon and is by The Scribe—Lampover.

Fred W., Cincinnati, O. Colin was taken to England, but did not race there. He made several seasons in the stud there and was brought back to this country after the death of his owner, James R. Keene. He is now in service at Wickliffe Stud Farm, near Lexington, Ky.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

The German war office issued the following statement: "To the west of Serje and to the northeast of Augustowo we took 600 Russians prisoners and captured three guns and two machine guns. A fresh Russian attempt to break through the German lines to the south of Augustowo resulted in the annihilation of the Russian force used in this endeavor. In an engagement to the northwest of Ostrolenka the Germans were victorious. Six Russian officers and 900 soldiers were taken prisoners, and eight machine guns were captured. The German attacks to the north and to the northwest of Pzrasnsyz have made further progress. In the fighting to the northwest of Novomiaslo 1,600 more Russians have been made prisoners by us." The following official communication was issued at Petrograd: "Between the Nieman and Vistula rivers battles of extreme obstinacy were fought in the region of Simno, in the valleys of the Omulew and Orzye rivers and in the direction of Pzrasnsyz. In the Carpathians all of the enemy's attacks have been repulsed, and near Gorlice our counter attack annihilated the Austrian units which had attempted, after the failure of an Austrian night attack, to interpose themselves on our front. In eastern Galicia, to the south of Nijewie, we succeeded in driving back the Germans."

The armies of Field Marshal von Hindenburg have begun another drive through Poland, the third since the beginning of the war. With Warsaw as their goal, the Germans are driving vicious blows at the five great Russian fortresses of the north—Novogeorgievsk, Pultusk, Ostrolenka, Ossowele and Grodno. The capture of any one of these is expected to seal Warsaw's doom. That the Germans already have made gains along this fortified front, which stretches in a huge curve north and northwest from Warsaw, is admitted in Petrograd. The German drive at Pzrasnsyz, in northern Poland, has carried the enemy within two hundred and fifty miles of the city. The Berlin war office announced yesterday. Russian reports of recent victories are denied and various German successes are recounted. It is said that in two battles 7,200 Russians were captured and that since relinquishing Pzrasnsyz the Germans have taken prisoners a total of 11,400 Russians on battlefields between the Vistula and Orzye rivers.

A conference at Rome today between Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador, and Premier Salandra has given rise to reports that events of the most momentous nature for Italy are impending. The meeting of the two diplomats was held after the premier had consulted for some hours with General Zupelli, the minister of war, and General Cadorna, the chief of staff of the army. It is credibly reported that Germany, realizing that Italian intervention is inevitable, has persuaded Austria to make territorial concessions conditional on a maintenance of Italian neutrality; that negotiations are now under way, but that they are unlikely to succeed since the compensation offered is not in proportion to Italy's aspirations.

The German government regards the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich as entirely unwarrantable, according to dispatches from Berlin. The news has created the most painful impression in official circles at Berlin. A strong protest is expected from Washington, though none has as yet been received. This protest, when it is made, will be met in a most conciliatory spirit and Germany will assure the Washington government that Captain Friedrichsen acted solely upon his own responsibility. The Berlin dispatches asserted. Officials united in ascribing the act to "the unfortunate zeal of an excitable captain."

Passengers and crew of the American steamer Almirante, at New York from South American ports by way of the West Indies, told of the presence of a fleet of nine British transports at Kingston, Jamaica, apparently in readiness to convey troops to Europe. The transports, it was said, were anchored off the port. Four British men-of-war lay alongside. One of the warships was recognized by the Almirante's passengers as the cruiser Sydney, which sank the German sea raider Emden off Cocos Island November 10, 1914. The Sydney's presence in Atlantic waters had not been recorded before.

British demands for the surrender of Smyrna have been rejected by the governor of the Turkish port and a heavy bombardment of the city and all its fortifications has been ordered by an English fleet, according to dispatches from Athens. The governor was given twenty-four hours to remove the non-combatant population of the city, the dispatches state, before the British ships opened fire. The British in Smyrna when the inhabitants were warned to flee.

The sweeping advance of British and Indian troops around Neive Chapelle in the direction of the strong German position at La Basse is regarded by some English newspapers as the beginning of active operations on the left wing of the allies' front in the western theater of war and is likely to be followed by another important offensive thrust preliminary to a general advance.

Because the inhabitants of Lille, a city in France occupied by the Germans, made a demonstration in honor of a group of prisoners of war brought into the city, the German military authorities in control imposed a tax of $100,000 to be paid by the city before March 20. The people of Lille also have been forbidden to leave their houses between 5 p. m. and 7 a. m.

The vali of Smyrna, says a Reuter's Athens dispatch, has issued a communique stating that if Smyrna is attacked by an allied fleet the city will be converted into a fortified town, and asking the civilian population to leave for the interior. Foreign residents of the city have asked, however, for the establishment of a neutral zone for safety.

In German naval circles it is declared that an investigation will be instituted into the report that the British admiralty intends to withhold the customary honorable imprisonment conditions from German submarine crews made captive and that if Great Britain places such Germans under special restrictions retaliatory measures may be adopted.

The Red Star Line steamship Lapland, which sailed for New York with 106 passengers, encountered a German submarine after she cleared the Mersey bar, but put on full speed and distanced the undersea boat. This is the first instance of an attempt to molest a transatlantic passenger vessel.

The sinking of another German submarine was reported to the British Admiralty by owners of the trawler Alex Chastie. They telegraph from North Shields that the submarine was fouled by the ropes of the trawler in the North sea and turned turtle, foundering in twenty minutes with all on board.

A cablegram from Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople stated that a British vice-admiral commanding the allied fleet in front of Smyrna gave the Turkish garrison twenty-four hours to surrender under threat of bombardment.

The coasting steamer Helen, which has just reached Liverpool, reported that a submarine tried to torpedo it eight miles northwest of Mersey bar, but that the torpedo missed it by the narrow margin of twenty yards.

The trawler Yunndien, at Rotterdam, reports that dummy periscopes have been planted in the North sea. The action is believed to be part of a German plan to deceive and terrorize British transports and traders.

Reuter's Petrograd correspondent says it is understood that an important decree relating to the treaty with Prussia, unless they shall be guilty of the Polish language will be issued shortly.

Arrangements are said to have been completed between Russia and Germany for the exchange of 200,000 war prisoners.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

A policy designed to avert any serious clash with Germany over the exploits of the German cruiser Prinz Eitel Frederick, now at Norfolk, has been decided upon by the administration at Washington. The cruiser will be allowed reasonable time to make repairs, replenish stores, and then will be required to leave American waters or to intern until the end of the war. The commander of the cruiser has stated that six weeks will be required to make his vessel seaworthy. Whether this is a reasonable period will be determined by the navy department.

While the Prinz Eitel Frederick is at Norfolk, the state department will conduct a careful investigation of the action of the German commander in destroying the American sailing vessel William P. Frye and its cargo of wheat consigned from Seattle to Queenstown. Whether the Frye was destroyed legitimately involves many fine points of international law. If the administration decides that the wheat should not have been classed as contraband of war the United States will call upon Germany for reparation. The Frye was valued at $282,000 and the cargo at $150,000. In no event will the cruiser be held by the United States as security for possible damages or in connection with piracy proceedings, as has been hinted in some sensational reports. The sinking of the Frye will be made the subject of representations to the German government designed to detain it, in disavowal of the action of the German commander in violating American rights. (2) Damages in compensation for the ship and its cargo of wheat. (3) Declaration by the German government that German vessels shall be unmolested hereafter as required by the treaty with Prussia, unless they shall be guilty of violation of recognized principles of international law. The German embassy at Washington entertains no fear of complications between the United States and Germany because of the destruction of the Frye. Embassy officials say that if it be proved that the grain was not contraband Germany cheerfully will pay the value of the vessel and cargo. They believe, however, that the grain will be shown to have been contraband because intended for the British forces. Hostile warships are waiting off Hampton roads to attack Prinz Eitel Frederick should it put to sea. The cutter Onondaga has gone out to enforce American neutrality laws.

John B. McManus, a prominent American in Mexico City, was killed when the Zapata forces entered the city Thursday. An American flag was flying over his house and the doors, according to a report to the state department at Washington from the Brazilian minister in Mexico City, had been seized by the Brazilian consul. General Salazar, the post commander, has promised the Brazilian minister he will punish those responsible for the murder, which is said to have been one of revenge because it was asserted that General Salazar was a capitalist when they were in the city previously. Secretary Bryan took the dispatches on the killing of McManus to the cabinet meeting yesterday and they were laid before President Wilson. Mr. Bryan said further reports on the punishment of those responsible were being awaited. General Salazar also told the Brazilian minister, the state department messenger said, that he would see to making arrangements for transportation of food supplies into the city.

Another note sent by the United States government to General Carranza in reply to his response to the notice that he, Carranza, and Obregon would be held personally responsible for the safety of Americans and other foreigners in Mexico City. It is understood to have emphasized the importance of keeping railway communication open between the capital and Vera Cruz. Carranza's reply to the American note was generally admitted to be wholly unsatisfactory. His action in addressing it to the president, instead of to Mr. Silliman or to the secretary of state, was regarded as peculiar, to say the least. Carranza's statement that the language of the American note was such as to justify him in not deigning to reply to it was viewed at Washington as little short of being positively offensive.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller died yesterday at the Rockefeller country home at Pocantico Hills, just outside of Tarrytown, N. Y. Although Mrs. Rockefeller had been an invalid for many months, it is understood that her death came unexpectedly. Her husband and son were at Onondaga, N. Y., and were advised early yesterday that Mrs. Rockefeller had taken a critical turn for the worse. Mr. Rockefeller and his son immediately engaged a special train. Laura Celestina Spelman Rockefeller was born in Wadsworth, O., of well to do New England parents September 9, 1839.

President Wilson and the cabinet at a conference yesterday decided that the United States will insist on summary punishment of all the soldiers responsible for the killing of John B. McManus, that adequate reparation be made to the family of the victim and that Zapata shall agree to protect all foreigners. This formal demand was sent to Mexico City, despite the prompt disavowal and promise of punishment made by the Zapata commander to Senor Cordoba, the Brazilian minister, who is looking after American interests.

The dispatch of Japanese troops to Manchuria and northern China, which has been confirmed, has centered the attention of the country upon the negotiations for concessions from China. The newspapers express the belief that these military movements are in preparation for eventualities in case China declines to accede to Japan's demands. It is their opinion that the old garrisons will remain until the negotiations are concluded satisfactorily.

The American steamer Honduras, with arms and ammunition for General Carranza, at Vera Cruz, is held at Key West by direction of customs headquarters at Washington, while the case has been referred to the state department. The Honduras left New York February 3 and put into Key West in distress February 15. There is no embargo on arms to Mexico, but before clearing the ship the customs officers asked the state department for advice.

Teachers in Chicago's public schools may become mothers without suffering the loss of their position, but, once mothers, they must stay out of the school for two years and devote those years entirely to the child's interest. When returning to school duties, they must show that the child is receiving proper care and not being neglected because of its mother's teaching activities.

Two thousand Mexicans stormed the national palace at Mexico City yesterday in an effort to release 250 Catholic priests imprisoned there, according to reports received at Los Angeles. A riot followed. Gustavo, chief of police of the capital, was stabbed, two Mexican assassins who attacked him were killed, and a large number of persons were injured.

An operation for appendicitis was performed on Secretary McAdoo yesterday at a Washington hospital. The physicians issued a bulletin saying the operation had been successful in every way and that their patient was in a very favorable condition.

The British steamship Indian City, which sailed from Galveston for Havana February 18, has been sunk. She carried 14,026 bales of cotton, constituting her first cargo. The cablegram came from Liverpool. No details were given.

"There is no doubt whatever that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich will be interned," said Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Peters, after a conference with President Wilson.

The United States has sent an inquiry to France to learn its purpose regarding the American steamer Dacia, before a prize court at Brest.
